DMACC HOSTS THIRD ANNUAL MID-AMERICAN WINE COMPETITION

Doug Frost (right) judges a wine during the food-wine pairing at the third annual Mid-American Wine Competition recently held at the DMACC Ankeny Campus. Frost is a Master Sommelier and also a Master of Wine. He is one of only three people in the world to have achieved both of these remarkable distinctions. The Mid-American Wine Competition is the only wine competition in the country to have a food-wine pairing. DMACC’s Iowa Culinary Institute students prepare the entrees that are paired with wines from throughout the Midwest.

Retired DMACC Instructor Lyla Maynard (pictured right) and current DMACC Webmaster Tonya Wheeler pour wines to be judged at the Third Annual Mid-American Wine Competition. More than 630 wines from 95 different wineries throughout 16 Midwestern states were entered in the competition. A total of 420 medals, including 48 gold medals, were awarded.

Richard Grant Peterson samples a wine during the recent Mid-American Wine Competition. Peterson is originally from Iowa and is a professional wine maker who has worked at Gallo, Beaulieu Vineyard, Monterey Vineyard, Atlas Peak Vineyard and Folie a Deux Winery. The Dick Peterson Trophy is named after him and is awarded to the best Iowa wine as judged at the Mid-American Wine Competition. The winner of the 2009 Dick Peterson Trophy is Starboard from Eagles Landing in Marquette.

As a result of Delta Dental’s awards, DMACC’s Foundation is launching a Capital Campaign to take advantage of the challenge grant. Delta Dental will match all new contributions, dollar-for-dollar up to the $50,000 total.

DMACC BOONE CAMPUS HOSTS KIDS TECH CAMP

Spencer Peterson, 12, of Boone and Gabe Krafcisin, 10, of Boone work on their computer skills during the DMACC Boone Campus Kids Tech Camp. Twenty students, entering grades fifth through seventh in the fall, participated in three days of fun-filled technology adventures through hands-on projects led by DMACC college instructors, staff and students. During the camp, students took part in a scavenger hunt, met their robot and put their robot to work, participated in a global positioning system treasure hunt, played computer games and used a Wii to play games.

ADULT TECH CAMP HELD AT THE DMACC BOONE CAMPUS

Martha Larson of Boone receives assistance from DMACC Instructor Linda Plueger and Jordan Nystrom at the recent DMACC Boone Campus Adult Tech Camp. Nystrom is an Iowa State University student assisting in the tech camp, which was held over three weekday evenings. The camp involved a series of learning sessions covering technology topics such as home personal computer maintenance, setting up a home network, home wireless setup, digital camera photo editing, printing and more. Participants also learned how use Movie Maker to create home videos to share with family and friends.
GIRLS BASKETBALL CAMP HELD AT THE DMACC BOONE CAMPUS

DMACC Women's Basketball Head Coach Steve Krafcisin (pictured right) talks with campers during the Girls Basketball camp recently held on the Boone Campus. Girls in grades fourth through twelfth had the opportunity to participate in the camp to learn the fundamentals of basketball and develop basic knowledge of the game. The camp was instructed by Krafcisin and DMACC Women's Basketball players.

CSI: DMACC KIDS CAMP HELD AT DMACC ANKENY CAMPUS

DMACC Electronic Crime Institute Director Bryan Burkhart works with Peyton Hayes, 13, of Oklahoma City during the CSI: DMACC Camp recently held at the DMACC Ankeny Campus from July 13–16. During the camp, students had the opportunity to learn about forensics, crime scene investigation and crime lab chemistry as well as how to process crime scenes and collect evidence. Campers were also able to use the computer program, FACES, to construct an image of a suspect and skulls to determine possible age and ancestry and take a tour of a crime lab.

DMACC CARROLL CAMPUS AND BVU FORM PARTNERSHIP

Buena Vista University's (BVU's) Professional & Online Studies program will be opening its newest location at the DMACC Carroll Campus in August. This will be the 15th site for BVU's program and it will be the second to be located on a DMACC campus. BVU also opened a site at DMACC’s Newton facilities in 2002. The Carroll program will offer bachelor of arts degree-completion programs in business administration and business management, with the first courses starting Aug. 31. Those taking part in a news conference on the Carroll Campus are pictured to the right.
FFA ENRICHMENT CENTER CONSTRUCTION

Construction is progressing on the new FFA Enrichment Center being built on the DMACC Ankeny Campus. The two-story, $12.6 million facility includes a glass-enclosed lobby, classrooms, breakout rooms, an 8,600-square-foot conference room and two apartments. DMACC’s Agri-Business, Biotechnology, Commercial Horticulture and Veterinary Technology programs will be housed in the facility. Although construction will be ongoing, some DMACC classes may be offered in the new FFA building as early as next spring semester.
