DMACC CENTER AT PERRY GROUNDBREAKING

Iowa Lieutenant Governor Patty Judge gets a helping hand as she steps out of the DMACC semi-truck upon arriving at the groundbreaking ceremony for the DMACC Center at Perry. Judge rode to the event in the DMACC semi driven by DMACC President Rob Denson. Denson is a licensed semi-trailer truck driver.

CAROL MULLING MEMORIAL/DEDICATION

A brief memorial/dedication service in honor of Carol Mulling will be held at noon, Fri., Oct. 30, outside Bldg. #2 on the DMACC Ankeny Campus next to her tree (weather permitting). All faculty, staff and students are encouraged to join Carol's family, colleagues and friends to commemorate the anniversary of her passing and recognize all of her contributions to DMACC.

USING A FIRE EXTINGUISHER

DMACC Welding student Chris Harden of Ankeny practices using a fire extinguisher under the watchful eye of the Ankeny Fire Department. Ankeny fire fighter/EMT Jeff Wells led the hands-on demonstration emphasizing the PASS methods of using a fire extinguisher. PASS is an acronym for pull the pin, aim, squeeze the trigger and sweep. DMACC Welding and Auto Collision Repair students took part in the demonstration held on the DMACC Ankeny Campus.

DMACC HOSTS VETERANS DAY TRIBUTE

A special tribute to veterans will be held on the DMACC Ankeny Campus on Veterans Day, Wed., Nov. 11. All veterans and their families are encouraged to attend the ceremony, which starts at 12:30 p.m. on the west side of the DMACC Lake near the gazebo. All veterans are encouraged to wear their military uniforms. A large rock and a plaque paying tribute to all veterans will be unveiled. DMACC's Chamber Ensemble will sing the national anthem, flags will be raised on new flag poles near the lake, a color guard will present the colors and taps will be played by a trumpeter. The event is sponsored by DMACC's Veteran's Affairs Office, the DMACC Foundation, the College's Diversity Commission and the DMACC Recreational Trail Committee. Following the ceremony, refreshments will be served. The event is free and open to the public.

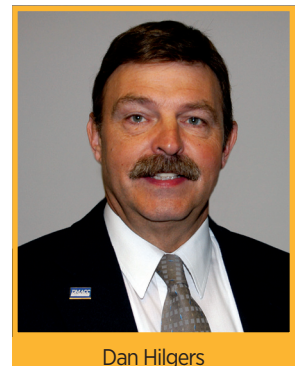

'THANK A VETERAN'

DMACC faculty, staff and students are encouraged to stop by the Quiet Lounge in Bldg. #5 from 10 a.m. to noon on Wed., Nov. 11, for DMACC's annual Veterans Recognition Day. Cookies, coffee and hot cider will be served for everyone who stops by to "thank a veteran."

Not only are all veterans encouraged to attend, but all DMACC faculty and staff members who are vets are asked to send their names, their components (Army, Navy, etc.), when they served and what they do at DMACC to DMACC Veterans Coordinator Pat Butin at pbutin@dmacc.edu so she can update her list. She would like that information no later than Nov. 6.

DMACC PROFESSOR NAMED 2009 POST-SECONDARY BUSINESS EDUCATOR

A DMACC Urban Campus Business Administrator Professor has been named by the Iowa Business Education Association (IBEA) as the Outstanding Iowa Post-Secondary Business Educator for 2009. Dan Hilgers received the award at the annual IBEA Fall Conference held in Des Moines. Hilgers, who has been a Business Educator for the past 31 years, also has been an advisor to the Phi Beta Lambda (PBL) DMACC Urban Campus chapter for the past 20 years.

Dan Hilgers

DMACC Ankeny Campus Business and Technology faculty members Kathleen Zimmerman, Tasha Mullihan, Chris Turner and Connie Sanderson received the Hoffman Award given for their simulated conference project that exposes students to all aspects of a conference, from pre-registration to checking in, to getting name badges and tote bags and other conference activities.
