Books to further educate about racial injustice in America from the DMACC Library:

Stamped From the Beginning: The Definitive History of Racist Ideas in America By Ibram X. Kendi

Ibram X. Kendi, award-winning historian and best-selling author, presents how racist and anti-black ideas were created, spread, and woven into American Society, powerfully dispelling the claim that we live in a post-racial America.

Voices of Diversity: Virtual Learning Session Thursday, June 25th 12:00pm-1:30pm

Come listen to our youth and students. DMACC students and employees are strongly encouraged to attend and participate in the Diversity Commissions "Youth and Student Voices of Diversity." This session will create a space in which our Black students can share their frustrations, anxieties, anger and experiences regarding issues of racism and inequality with DMACC leadership and the larger DMACC community, and have those experiences heard and acknowledged.
