WEST CAMPUS 3-ON-3 BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Players from both teams battle to gain possession of the basketball during one of the games in the Sixth Annual Wild, Wild West 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament held at the West Campus on Saturday, July 24. The tournament raised $37,500. Proceeds from the tournament provide scholarships to DMACC West Campus students. A record 82 teams took part in the competition this year.

A member of one of the girls’ teams drives for a basket during one of the opening rounds of the day-long tournament.

The annual 3-on-3 basketball tournament featured tight man-to-man defense, uncontested long-range shots and driving lay-ups.
Upcoming Events

July 30 & Aug. 1
Ankeny Campus Drama
Department production of Hotel Paradise, Des Moines Civic Center, Stoner Theatre

Aug. 9
Board of Directors meeting, 4 p.m., West Campus

Archives
Click to view DMACC Bulletin Archives

Photo Wall
Click to view the photo wall

WEST CAMPUS 3-ON-3 BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT, CONT.

Bridget Nolan, 8, of Johnston, shows off her success in the fishing derby, which was another one of the activities taking place during the 3-on-3 Wild, Wild West Basketball Tournament at the DMACC West Campus. Bridget is the daughter of Matt and Dania Nolan of Johnston.

The U.S. Army played a prominent role in this year’s West Campus event. The U.S. Army contributed $10,000 to the West Campus. DMACC West Campus Provost Dr. Tony Paustian (left) and DMACC President Rob Denson (right) accept the check from 1SG Steven Laick (second from left, left to right), SFC Jacob Duncalf, SFC Benjamin Fox, SSG David Milton and Captain Gregory Davis.

In addition, the U.S. Army brought out their rock climbing structure. Bailey Laidlow (left) and Ashlee Thompson, both of West Des Moines, demonstrate their prowess at rock climbing.

Jordan Kreth, 17, of New Sharon, gets final instructions from U.S. Army SSG David Milton before successfully ascending the rock-climbing venue.
DMACC BEAR AT IOWA GAMES

DMACC Bear and the Iowa Games mascot, Champ, wait for the opening ceremony at the 2010 Iowa Games recently held at Jack Trice Stadium on the Iowa State University Campus. Tens of thousands of people attended the opening ceremonies with thousands of athletes taking part in scores of sports.

DMACC DAY AT THE NEW ANKENY AQUATICS CENTER

A trio of lifeguards tries out the new Flowrider surf machine at the new Cascade Falls Aquatic Center at Prairie Trail in Ankeny during DMACC Days. Everyone attending on July 26 received half-price admission and a free scoop of ice cream, complements of DMACC. The new center features heated water, a lazy river, a lap pool, inner tube water slides, water cannons, a surf machine and other amenities to ensure a fun time for the entire family on a hot summer day.
DMACC PIONEERS CONNECTION

Jan and Bob Mitchell, who were instrumental in the completion of the Miracle Baseball Field for special needs children, will speak at the next DMACC Pioneers meeting on Thursday, August 12 at the FFA Enrichment Center, Rooms 208 and 209. The board meeting starts at 10 a.m.

Items are still being accepted for the Pioneers Garage Sale until August 6. If you have items to donate, please call 964-6868 to arrange for a pickup or delivery.

The 2010 Pioneers Garage Sale will be from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., Thursday, August 19 and Friday, August 20 and from 7 to 11 a.m., Saturday, August 21 in Bldg. #13 on the DMACC Ankeny Campus. All proceeds will go to DMACC students for scholarships and assistance.

The DMACC Pioneers will again be helping students during the first days of class on August 26 and 27. Please wear an “Ask Me” shirt and be willing to assist students. If you can help out, contact John Arbuckle at home (515) 964-1283 or cell (515) 249-0130. Each volunteer receives a lunch ticket to be used in the Bldg. #5 café.

The September 9th “Kick-Off” meeting will be at 4:30 p.m. in the FFA Enrichment Center Conference room on the first floor.