LEARNING ABOUT DOWNTOWN DES MOINES

DMACC Management, Marketing and Fashion students listening to Mary Bontrager

DMACC Management, Marketing and Fashion students took the classroom into downtown Des Moines June 18 as they listened to a presentation from Mary Bontrager with the Greater Des Moines Partnership. They also took a tour and asked questions about upcoming projects and events plus living and working in downtown. As part of an accompanying assignment, students answered questions about Des Moines and took pictures in front of landmarks for extra credit.

DMACC students listen to Amy Baker (in the black-and-white striped shirt)

DMACC students onboard the free downtown shuttle service listen to Amy Baker (in the black-and-white striped shirt) of the Downtown Community Alliance as she talks about businesses, shopping districts and entertainment venues in downtown Des Moines.
