CULINARY STUDENTS LEARN FROM FRENCH CHEFS

DMACC Iowa Culinary Institute™ student Logan Lumley (right) of Hampton learns about defooting scallops from French Chef Nicolas Renaud as they prep for a gourmet dinner served that evening.

DMACC ICI™ students Andrew Shatter (left) of Norwalk and Mark Walter (right) of Des Moines assist French Chef Loïc Vaillant in a blending of ingredients as they prepare an entrée for the gourmet dinner. This marks the 30th anniversary of the DMACC French Chefs exchange. More than two dozen French chefs and their spouses spent nearly two weeks in Iowa teaching French cuisine to the culinary students.

French Chef Guy Rival (center) shows culinary students Jacob Wood (left) from Johnston and Stephanie Milone of West Des Moines how to prepare morel mushrooms as one of the initial entrees at the French gourmet dinner. Some of the DMACC students will travel to France in May for a hands-on learning experience with the French chefs.
PROJECT SEARCH GRADUATING CLASS

The other three members of the graduating class, Aurora Post (left to right) of Johnston, Dillon Weber of Des Moines, and Meg Wood of Ankeny, listen to Schroeder. The six interns gained job experience working in various areas of DMACC, including: Campus Health Office, Child Development Center, Computer Lab, Copy Center, DMACC Café, Office of the Dean of Health and Public Services, Human Resources, Physical Plant, Shipping and Receiving and Systems Integration. Project Search is a collaborative partnership between DMACC and Easter Seals.

CAREER FAIR HELD ON THE ANKENY CAMPUS

DMACC second year Early Childhood Education students Makenzie Anderson (center) of Boone and Kayla Aanrud of Ankeny visit with Kelly Ethell, director of the Altoona 8th Street Child Care, at an Early Childhood Pre-Education and Human Services Career Fair recently held at the DMACC Ankeny Campus.

DONATION TO DMACC’S CHRYSLER CAP

DMACC Chrysler College Automotive Program Professor John Russell (right) shakes the hand of Mopar Service and Parts Area Manager Michael Bartlett who presented a $3,000 check to DMACC’s Chrysler CAP. The money will be used to purchase educational equipment to be used by DMACC Chrysler CAP students.

FREE COOKIES AND FRUIT

DMACC Ankeny Campus student Nedzada Jasarevic of Ankeny enjoys some free cookies and fruit at a recent Academic Achievement Center Open House. Jasarevic is a second-year student enrolled in Liberal Arts.

PIONEER CONNECTION

IN MEMORY OF OUR PIONEER FRIENDS WHO HAVE PASSED:

ON JANUARY 21, 2015

Joe Borgen, former President of DMACC, and Pioneer originator, passed from his home in Bella Vista, Arkansas. Along with many other accomplishments, Joe was instrumental in the creation of our Pioneer group in 1994. Many of the Pioneers had direct contact with Joe and consider him among one of the most influential DMACC administrators in the history of the college. Although he retired in 2001, his impact on our college will be long remembered.

Jack Mastrofski, former long-time instructor in the DMACC Commercial Art Program, passed from a retirement home in Norwalk, Iowa. Jack was one of the most creative individuals we ever had the privilege of having known, worked with, or had as an instructor. His contribution to the Commercial Art Program from 1971 to 1989 was significant and deeply appreciated. His gift to DMACC was one of unselfish devotion to his creative art and to inspire that in his students.

Both of these men contributed a lot to DMACC and will be remembered forever.

FEBRUARY MEETING:
This will be our Annual Pioneer appreciation luncheon and time to socialize with your Pioneer friends. Our culinary students will be preparing and serving lunch in the Bistro. The meeting will be on Thursday, February 12, at 11:30 a.m. in the Bistro in Bldg. #7 on the Ankeny Campus. The Board meeting will be in the Walnut room at 10 a.m.

In order to help us accurately plan, please make your reservation by 4 p.m. on Monday, February 9, by calling 964-6868 or emailing pioneers@dmacc.edu. No reservations will be accepted after that time.

Please bring non-perishable donations for Pamela’s Pantry.

BOOKS ARE FUN – ANKENY CAMPUS
Books Are Fun, a Reader’s Digest Company, and the DMACC Pioneers are partnering for a fun and educational book sale. The sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wednesday, February 25, and Thursday, February 26, in the Student Lounge, Bldg. #5 on the Ankeny Campus.

Product categories include children’s story books, cookbooks, general interest books, New York Times best sellers, stationery and scrapbooking, music collections, gifts for all ages, early learning and children’s educational products. Proceeds from this event support the Pioneer’s Scholarship Fund and student assistance programs!

MARCH MEETING
Our March 12 meeting will include an update by Ned Miller, DMACC Facilities Planning, providing an overview of all of the campus updates and building renovations.

P.S. – if you haven’t checked out the Pioneer History Web site recently, please do. There are lots of new updates. Visit us at:
