The Fishing Hat was the theme for another in a series of Ethel and Albert skits during January. Kerin Springer and Mark Adkins portrayed the couple in this battle of the marrieds that found Albert planning a fishing trip with the "guys." Ethel had supposedly thrown away his favorite fishing hat—causing another typical Ethel and Albert marital scene. Albert announces that he "can't catch any fish without that hat." and when Ethel provides him with a new headpiece, he finds it too small and wears it only to embarrass her.

Homecoming highlights February

By MARCIA MATT

The crowning of Kerin Springer and Tim Orr as 1981 royalty highlighted the Homecoming festivities of the DMACC on Feb. 2.

King candidates were Tim Orr, Kevin Israel, Kerin Springer, Mary Storey and Sue Sternquist and each was presented with a rose. King candidates were Tim Orr, Kevin Israel, Mark Adkins, Joe Neville and Wayne Abrahamson. Marilyn McGinty and John Hayes — 1980 DMACC Homecoming King and Queen — were on hand to crown Kerin Springer and Tim Orr as their successors and the 1981 royalty.

Letters from Readers

TO: Marcia Matt, Bear Facts editor
FROM: Dennis Krehbiel, Dean, Student Development, Ankeny Campus

Dear Marcia,

Last week during my monthly visit to the Boone Campus, I picked up the most recent issue of the BEAR FACTS.

I want to compliment you and your staff on an excellent publication! I’m very impressed with the overall quality of your paper, especially with the positive emphasis throughout the entire paper. I see news doesn’t seem to be “newsworthy” unless it’s controversial, bad, reported with cynicism, or just plain negative. It’s really refreshing to read a publication like the BEAR FACTS. It is professionally done and is very student-oriented—as a student newspaper should be. I would like to see others follow this fine example of positive journalism. Again, my compliments to you and your staff. Keep up the good work!

Editor’s desk

Another issue of the paper has gone to bed (or should I say...another one bites the dust)? Whatever the answer, this issue was definitely easier than the last (by about eight pages). I want to take this opportunity to congratulate 1981 Homecoming royalty Kerin Springer and Tim Orr, as well as the entire Homecoming court, and all of those involved with the preparations of the annual event — it was great! (I am sorry that you all of those involved with the preparations of the Orr, as well as the entire Homecoming court, and I also hope that all of those planning on the Afton Alps ski trip enjoyed themselves and party extra heartily for those of us still on campus. (Did you read that part, Gail?) February is FBLA-PBL month and the BEAR FACTS is proud to congratulate all DMACC PBL members. The March issue of this publication will offer photos and information on the organization.

Happy Valentines day to everyone...remember those sweetheart.

Marcia

A PBL thank you

On Wednesday, Dec. 10, members of Phi Beta Lambda listened to Mr. Dan Buss of D.D. Pile Company. After attending Boone Jr. College, he earned a degree in Industrial Administration from Iowa State. He discussed secretarial and para professional jobs in the public accounting area and stressed the importance of how to act and what employers look for in a job interview. His presentation was appreciated by the Phi Beta Lambda members.

Homecoming 1981

THE BOONE BEARS dropped the Homecoming game to the Iowa Central Community College Tritons. This Bear goes up to hit the basket for two points.

THE CHEERLEADERS kept spirit up during the games with yells and routines. The special Homecoming routine was entitled “It’s Just a Fantasy.”

THE SPIRIT BOX was the title for the Homecoming pep rally skit and Boone Bear, Dan Coder, really livened up those cheerleaders!

THIS LONE MUSICMAKER was the sole member of that ill-fated DMACC pep band which was hoped for for Homecoming. This participant did make rounds of “charge” very popular, however, during the Homecoming basketball games.

Yea Bears!!
Her competitive quality

By STEVE ANDERSON

Mary Storey is a second year student at the Boone Junior College. One of the most outstanding qualities she possesses is her feeling of competitiveness, mostly in sports.

Storey is a Liberal Arts major at the Boone Junior College and plans to attend a four-year university after receiving her Associate Arts degree.

She participated in softball, track and basketball at Woodward-Granger High School. At the Boone Junior College she is one of the top performers for the Lady Bears basketball and softball teams. Last year Mary was the leading scorer for the Boone Campus Lady Bears, where she plays guard, and she is a shortstop for the softball team and was last year’s leading batter for the team.

A 67-54 defeat by Ellsworth began by finging the Bears behind by one point at halftime. Mary Storey had a season high of 21 points, followed by Boesen with 16, Carla Martin added 10, Mary Storey 7, Ronna Santage 6, Jerri Augustus led the offense with 18 points, followed closely by Jane Boesen with 16, Carla Martin added 10, Mary Storey 7, Ronna Santage 6, Jerri Augustus, Shelly Williams and Cheryl Hurst each had 4.

A 67-54 defeat by Ellsworth began by finging the Bears behind by one point at halftime.

Mary Storey had a season high of 21 points, followed by Kelly Hammarr with 13, Jerri Augustus, Carla Martin and Jane Boesen with 6 each and Cheryl Hurst added 4.

On a trip to Kirkwood, the Lady Bears won by 7 point and a score of 45-9.

The Bears played a good defensive game collecting 21 steals and 29 rebounds. The gals hit 37 percent from the field.

By LORI POWERS

The Lady Bears lost recently in a close ballgame against Ellsworth.

The Bears held a 10 point lead in the second half, but Ellsworth wouldn’t give up and fought back to a 45-46 win.

Marshalltown outrebounded the Lady Bears 32-27 when the Bears had problems connecting with the basket.

Jane Boesen led the team with 11 points and 14 rebounds followed by Jerri Augustus with 16, Mary Storey added 9, Carla Martin 8, Kelly Hammar 3, Cheryl Hurst, Kim Beckman and Ronna Santage had 2 each.

The Lady Bears also had an easy victory over Marshalltown—defeating them 70-50. They outrebounded the opponents and hit 48 percent from the field. The Bears played a good game all around, passing the ball and playing good team defense. They collected 23 steals as a team.

Kelly Hammarr led the offense with 18 points followed closely by Jane Boesen with 16, Carla Martin added 10, Mary Storey 7, Ronna Santage 6, Jerri Augustus, Shelly Williams and Cheryl Hurst each had 4.

The Bears had a great offensive game collecting 21 steals and 29 rebounds. The gals hit 37 percent from the field.

Leading the scoring for Boone, was Jane Boesen with 24 points and her best performance this year. Mary Storey followed Boesen with 17. Kelly Hammarr came in for 8, Carla Martin had 7, Ronna Santage added 4 and Jerri Augustus and Cheryl Hurst each had 2.

The team pulled down 28 rebounds and held Fort Dodge to just 25. The record is now 5-8.

Bears drop close contest to Ellsworth

BY JOE NEVILLE
The Boone Bears took a 4-9 record into Iowa Falls taking on the Ellsworth Panthers. The Bears were turned away in the final minutes, losing 98-95.

The first half was sluggish with each team having many turnovers. Boone’s defense also had some weak moments, allowing Ellsworth to run off 8 unanswered points at two different times during the first half.

The score after the first period was 53-41 with Ellsworth on top. During the second half, the Bears came alive and looked like a totally different team. Boone tied up the game with 1:06 showing on the clock, but couldn’t keep up with the Panthers in the final minute, losing by three points.

A bright spot for the Bears was Harold Mayo’s 28 points and 18 rebounds—10 of those caroms coming on the defensive boards. Dave Dunkelberger came through with 18 points and Fred West with 17. Richard Griggs and Mike Garner were also in double figures with 10 and 12 points respectively.

Bears edged at home match-up

BY GREGG FJELLAND
The Ellsworth Panthers edged the Boone Bears 73-63 at the Boone Campus Gymnasium on Monday night, Jan. 19.

Boone raced out to a 14-4 edge very early in the first half, but the Panthers clawed back to a 21-19 deficit by the 6:16 mark in the half. In the remaining six minutes Boone outscored the Panthers 12-9 to grab a 33-28 halftime lead.

The Ellsworth squad was led by Terrance Watson and Dannie Joness who chipped in 12 and 8 first half points.

In the second half Boone fans again saw their Bears grab an eight point lead, only to be tied at 43-43 with 13:35 remaining. Ellsworth and Boone were matching basket for basket during the next seven minutes until the Panthers finally forged on top 60-59 with 6:29 left. From that point on, the Bears were outscored 13-4 to leave a final score of 73-63 on the scoreboard.

Ellsworth was keyed by three players, Terrance Watson who finished with a game high 28 points, Dannie Jones 15, and the second super half play of Mark Ellerman who finished with 11.

Boone was led by Dave Dunkeleberger’s 20, Richard Griggs, 11, and Harold Mayo who added 10.

Waldorf topples Boone with 93-77

By GREGG FJELLAND
Boone fell to a 4-9 record with a loss at the hands of the Waldorf Warriors 93-77 last week.

During the first half, Waldorf controlled the boards as well as the game. Boone went into the locker room trailing by ten at the half, 45-35.

In the second half, the Bears could get no closer to their opponents score than eight points. The Warriors continued to control the boards as they outrebounded the Bears 40-32.

Waldorf stretched their ten point half-time lead to sixteen as the final buzzer went off with 93-77 on the scoreboard.

For the Bears, Harold Mayo dropped in 24 points and hauled down eight boards to lead the Bears in both categories. Also for the Bears, Fred West added 20, Mike Garner had 16, Dave Dunkelberger added five and Richard Griggs and Marc Frette put in four each to round out the Bear scoring attack.

Derrrik enjoys athletics

By JOE NEVILLE
Todd Derrrik Peterson is a young man who has always enjoyed sports and put 100 percent into everything in which he has participated.

Todd graduated from South Hamilton High School where he was awarded a scholarship to Boone Campus, DMACC.

When Todd was in his sophomore year at South Hamilton his friends and coach recall his uncoordination in athletics, but because of his determination by his junior year he excelled in football and basketball.

Todd received all-state honors in both sports. He was contacted by many colleges encouraging him to come and join their athletic programs.

Peterson was contacted by coach Hughes to play basketball here at DMACC, where he eventually achieved a very high honor when he received a scholarship.

Todd’s parents now live in Albany, New York, but Todd chose to stay in the Boone area and help Boone Campus improve the basketball program. Todd’s dedication will contribute toward putting the Boone basketball team on the top by next year.

The Boone County Pork Queen

By MARCIA MATT

With the opening of a new year, many people develop feelings of new beginnings. For one DMACC student, however, the start of 1981 is not a beginning, but instead, the end of a year filled with many happenings as Boone County's Pork Queen.

Chris Shedd, the 1980 queen and the BEAK FACTS Student of the Month for February, said that she had never realized how active the Pork Producers were until she was crowned twelve months ago.

Shedd will hand down her crown on Feb. 9 — ending a very busy reign.

As queen, she reigned over the Boone Pork Appreciation Days and drew the names of the half-hog winners connected with those festivities. Shedd also handed out ribbons at the Boone County Fair in both open class and 4-H divisions, assisted in various store pork promotions for both Ogden and Perry and competed for the District Pork Queen title in June of 1980.

She also rode in the Boone County Fair parade, the Pufferbilly Days parade, the Sauerkraut Days parade in Bouton, the Beaver Days parade and the Ogden Fun Days parade.

As the 1980 title holder, Shedd received both the crown and a $50 savings bond. Shedd says that she's "going to miss it," because she "had a lot of fun and met a lot of people."

She also says that she hopes her successor will "try to do whatever the Pork Producers ask, because it makes being the Pork Queen more exciting and more than just a title."

Shedd, a 1980 graduate of United Community High School, is enrolled in the Bookkeeping-Accounting program at DMACC. While in high school, she was active in chorus, speech club, pep club and letterman club. She was also a six-year cheerleader for both football and basketball. At the Boone Campus, she keeps busy as a PBL officer and a member of the choir.

Ski tip is still on for this month

By STEVE ANDERSON

An idea that was "kicked around" in the student lounge a few months ago has turned into reality for 40 Boone Campus students.

From Feb. 19-23, a group of 40 local college students will be enjoying a ski trip to Afton Alps in Minnesota.

Tim Orr, Student Senate President, thought of the idea for a student ski trip and has been busy coordinating, planning and making most of the required arrangements ever since.

Afton Alps features 27 ski runs, night skiing, three chalets and has been known as "Little Colorado."

The group tentatively plans to leave Boone by bus at approximately 10 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 19 and return Sunday afternoon, Feb. 22.

They plan to arrive in Stillwater, Minn. after a five hour drive where they will stay for the weekend.

Prices for the trip are $65, $77 and $80. The $65 fee does not include ski equipment, the $77 fee includes ski equipment and the $80 package includes equipment and lessons.

Every package price includes three days and three nights lodging, two days lift tickets and transportation to and from the ski area each day as a group.

The first 40 people paying the price in full will be entitled to go. Feb. 1 was the deadline for paying.

The group will be staying in a Ramada Inn in Stillwater approximately 15 miles from Afton Alps. The Ramada features an indoor pool, sauna and a whirlpool.

By MARCIA MATT
Rumors concerning the possibility of closing the Boone Campus were scotched Friday morning by Des Moines Area Community College president, Paul Lowery.

Lowery, speaking to a group of Boone Campus students, faculty and administrators, said, "there is no basis to the rumors of closing the Boone Campus. We are not here to talk about the closing of Boone Campus."

The Jan. 23 Legislative Convocation was called to discuss a recent tuition hike initiated by the DMACC board of directors.

The tuition increase will become effective at the beginning of the 1981 spring quarter and will raise full-time student tuition from $165 to $210—an approximate 27 percent.

The four DMACC two-year campuses of Boone, Carroll, Urban and Ankeny are requiring the tuition increase to ward off the 4.6 percent across-the-board spending cut ordered by Gov. Robert Ray.

The increase will allow the school to raise an additional $225,000 during the spring and summer by adding one dollar to the present $16.50 credit hour rate and raising the number of hours for which full-time students are charged from 10 to 12.

The board also approved a 20 percent increase for adult education short courses. This raises the cost from $1 per hour to $1.20. Those enrolled in high school equivalency classes will be charged $30 per course—$5 above the current cost.

Lowery explained that since all four DMACC campuses are considered as one college, the tuition increase would be effective on each one equally.

He went on to say that the "Boone J.C. is a pretty good-sized business in the community of Boone," and that the Boone Campus could be further assisted if more local persons would become active.

Campus in curbing the financial difficulties facing the school.

Using slides in his explanation, Snyders said that the DMACC serves the largest geographical area in Iowa—20 percent of the state. He also said that it now offers the most diverse combination of educational offerings of any Iowa Community College.

He went on to note that should the drop in state aid offered to the DMACC not be replaced in the future, some programs and courses now being offered by the four campuses could be cancelled entirely.

The DMACC has neither increased nor decreased its tuition since 1972, although, using Gross National Product figures, inflation has increased 83 percent over the same time period he said. Because of that, Snyders added, "we (DMACC) are in trouble."

An increase in tuition causes a drop in enrollment which in turn means a decrease in both programs and revenues, explained Snyders.

Don Kerr, DMACC Legislative Liaison, then addressed the assembly concerning the possible steps that could be taken by those connected with the campus to aid the situation.

Kerr introduced Iowa House of Representative member Joyce Longman adn Senator member Jack Nystrom, both of whom urged those in attendance to write and lobby their individual state legislators in connection with the college aid cut.

Kerr then noted that the specifics of the state financial situation would not be known until Jan. 29 when Gov. Ray gave his budget message. He said that it is expected the figures released will not effect the DMACC until May or June.

Audience members of the convocation then voiced their opinions and asked questions concerning the issue.

A number of questions concerning the specifics of the financial situation were elucided by the DMACC administrative panel through continual reminders that the figures released would not be made until after Gov. Ray's budget message. It was noted, however, that should a cut in programs become necessary, those classes carrying the lowest enrollment and the highest costs would be among the ones liquidated.

Many students were also concerned because the Boone tuition was being raised to a figure equally as high as Ankeny's, the largest of the four DMACC campuses, while Ankeny is able to offer a more diverse course selection and more special program equipment than the Boone Campus.

The administrators answered that all four campuses were considered as one college and restated the purpose of the meeting as not involving that segment of discussion.

Following the convocation, Boone Campus Student Senate President, Tim Orr, said that "we've got to have another meeting." Orr said the next assembly will be organized to discuss the campus(es) individually and representatives from both the Urban and Carroll Campuses would be invited to the next meeting as well.

Convocation confirms it--Campus not closing

What you can do about rising tuition

By THAD STEVENS
As word of a raise in tuition for the spring quarter at Des Moines Community College was formally announced Friday, Jan. 23, by school officials, questions and temps were also raised by the students.

"Inflation is the main cause, as Gene Snyders the Vice President for Business Management explained. He told the assembled students that exploding school enrollments, competitive teachers salaries and equipment maintenance, along with the cuts ordered by Gov. Robert Ray, have forced the school to raise its quarterly tuition immediately.

Just how much will the tuition be raised? If you were a full-time student last quarter, you paid $165. This spring quarter you will pay $210, an increase of $45.

Another item of discussion was grant money. This area took the largest cut which means less money for more applicants. Along with the rising tuition, this lack of grant money could put some students out of school.

What action can be taken by the students?

Don Kerr, the Legislative Liaison for the school, says to take immediate action. Make sure you know who your senator and representative is and make an appointment to see them.

Kerr emphasized that the students shouldn't take no for an answer. "Don't be put off!" he said.

One question raised by a concerned student was whether there would be fewer classes and fewer full-time teachers next year on Boone Campus. The answer was one of uncertainty, as DMACC President Paul Lowery explained there would be fewer career education classes and no decision has been reached on the teacher.

Dinner theater coming for Boone audiences

By MARCIA MATT

The second production of the Boone Community Theater's 1980-1981 season is now in the making, "I Do, I Do", a script written by Harvey Schmidt and Tom Jones, is based on the play "The Fourposter," by Jande Hartag. The play tells the story of marrieds Michael and Agnes from their wedding day until the time of their retirement. It involves both the ups and downs of their marriage and is basically a comedy musical. The featured song is "My Cup Runneth Over With Love."

"I Do, I Do" is being directed by Lynn Lada (artistic) and David Howell (musical). Cast members are Larry Lada and Susan Robertson. The second dinner-theater production will be performed at the Tic Toc Supper Club in Boone with ticket prices being $12.50. Opening night is set for Feb. 26 with performances also on Feb. 27 and 28, as well as on March 6 and 7. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. with the show to follow at 8 p.m. A Sunday matinee for non-smokers and non-drinkers will be held on March 8 with dinner at noon and performance at 2 p.m.
