FROM THE DEAN'S DESK:

To both old and new students I wish to give an "official" welcome as we enter the second year of our being in our new home. Throughout the year both faculty and myself will be working with you to make this a red-letter-year in the history of the College.

Last year's class set a fine example for us with excellent leadership from the President of the student body. The election of a president of the student body should be given your careful attention, for his or her leadership must coincide with the best interest of the College.

To the staff of the College Newspaper I wish continued success in their publication.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Heyen, Dean

THE CANDIDATES SPEAK:

candidates for President

If I am elected president of Boone Junior College, I will do the very best job of which I am capable. My biggest plan is to form a "social" committee. This committee will plan picnics, parties, and of course, the Junior College banquet.

Tom Anderson

More Parties!!

Bill Barry
(Candidates cont'd.)

The presidency should be held by a person who realizes the serious obligations and the dignity associated with the office. Therefore, I will do my best to promote social functions and to promote better understanding between the J. C. & the community.

Rosalie Bullock

Candidate for Vice-president

I would appreciate all votes I can get. I do not like to make a lot of promises. But if the president will agree with me we will have more parties.

Kenneth R. Shuey

There is only one candidate running for vice-president and no one running for secretary or treasurer so the vacancies will be elected by write-ins. Be thinking about qualified persons to fill these positions and BE SURE TO VOTE!!!
